Brigitte Stolk

Brigitte Stolk has always been a dreamer ever since she was a child, and realized at an early age that music would play an important part in her life. Spending her spare time writing songs, composing melodies and singing either at home or at school. There was always music in the household. Any genre was welcome, from hard Rock to Zouk music, Funk and Soul music to Pop.

Her musical influences are loud and clear; Michael Jackson and Madonna as well as many others including; Diana Ross, Marvin Gaye, Prince, Aretha Franklin, Cyndi Lauper, Peter Gabriel, U2, Nayanka Bell, Kassav, Billie Holiday and Sarah Vaughan.

She was born in Burundi, but the family moved to the Netherlands. There she studied languages but it was becoming very clear that she couldn't stay away from the music scene. Once she got her Diploma in translation (ISTI, Brussels), she immersed herself into the music world and decided to study Jazz music (which she did at the jazz studio of Antwerp). She has been in a number of gospel choirs, was the female vocalist for Hip Hop bands in Belgium, The Netherlands, and France but also performed as a solo artist in the country's trendiest clubs, festivals, radio and television shows.

In 2002, her first single "I'm sorry" was released, under the moniker "SWEET B". She followed this with a full-length album release "Solid'air (2004), and singles "Cum 2 mee" (2006) and "IT'S XMAS" (2008). In 2009, "Cum 2 mee" was chosen as the original soundtrack by French film producer Alain Zirah for his series "The Kat Ladies".

Brigitte is a multi-facetted artist, who's been compared to Aalyiah, Tamia and Janet Jackson. She's been described in a French national newspaper as "the feline who turned into music" (Patricia Maille-Caire). Brigitte has that inner sweetness to her voice. A voice that conveys deep emotions and moves people's hearts.

Her music has been promoted and heard on radios in Europe and the US and Canada (Tros Radio, Radio één, Bel RTL, Q-Music, Fun Radio, Radio Forest, Cigale FM, Radio Star, DBC Radio, Amysfm, First Music Radio, Jazz89 Kuvo, Radical.FM, Radio Arcadia, Gayradiobec.com, CKCU FM, Arizona's Real Rock Radio, etc).

Brigitte Stolk is now signed to one of the world's leading independent record labels, Blue Pie Records, where she will distribute her music through to the world.

Out beyond ideas of wrongdoing and rightdoing, there is a field. I'll meet you there
